ACTION:	For reply 17 December 2018

Australian Pool Life Saving Championships
Chief Referee / CPR Coordinator / SERC Coordinator / Equipment Coordinator
2020 - WA and 2021 – TBC

The Royal Life Saving Society - Australia National Sport Committee is calling for Expressions of Interest from persons wishing to apply for the positions of Chief Referee, CPR Coordinator, SERC Coordinator or Equipment Coordinator for the 2020 and 2021 Australian Pool Life Saving Championships [APLSC].

The 2020 Championships will be held in Western Australia with dates to be confirmed. The dates and venue for the 2021 Championships are to be confirmed. Costs associated with event organisation and meetings, travel to and from the Championships, accommodation, transfers and official functions will be covered by the National Office.

The successful applicants should hold a minimum of a current RLSSA Level Two Officials qualification and have relevant practical experience at an APLSC, preferably as a deputy referee or senior technical official for speed, SERC or CPR events.

Applications must be submitted on the attached form and returned to the National Office no later than Monday 17 December 2018. Please ensure that all applications are marked to the attention of Rob Reid, National Sport Advisor and returned to cturner@rlssa.org.au.

For further information on these roles please refer to the job descriptions attached and the RLSSA Competition Handbook available at www.royallifesaving.com.au

Kind regards,

Rob Reid
